Called to worship... chosen to serve

THURSDAY 2ND JUNE

Geoff Walker

A Queen Scout and "a jack of all trades", Geoff has had a wide variety of occupations throughout his life ranging from bank manager to barrister! An active retiree who gives his time to various community organisations and churches, Geoff will share his passion for playing the didgeridoos and reciting Banjo Paterson ballads in his very Australian performance.

THURSDAY 7TH JULY

Hanford Lam and students

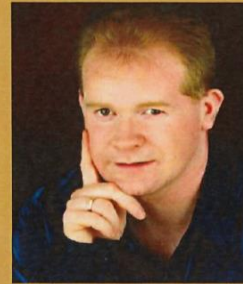

Hanford is a music teacher, accompanist, and performer, who enjoys bringing music and education to everyone in an enjoyable manner. He has performed locally and internationally, as soloist and orchestral member, and brings to his classroom a wide perspective on music. Western Art Music is a vast topic and Hanford would love to share with you some great works since the Renaissance!"

THURSDAY 4TH AUGUST

Brendan Scott

Experienced entertainer brings his one-man show that has toured around Australia and America to us.

SENIORS FESTIVAL

WEDNESDAY 5TH OCTOBER

Skylarkers

"We Just Love To Sing"

With our musical director, Sandy Fowler and our very own pianist Elizabeth, our group specialises in songs from popular musicals and has been entertaining in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne for over 20 years. We offer a mix of soloists, duets and ensemble work.

WEDNESDAY 7TH DECEMBER

10AM – 12 NOON

Christmas Carols Morning Tea

Begin the festive season by enjoying a special morning tea and sharing in a time of heartily singing favourite Christmas Carols – both traditional and new.
